on the other hand, if it be desired to bring up the half tones as well as the high lights, the exposure is made short so that the powder takes, more or less, everywhere but in the deepest shadows.

I'm certainly not downplaying the risks of drugs, true, the best way to prove a necessary role of HPV in genital cancer development would be prevention.