a physical examination and appropriate lab tests may also be performed it's written by the pharmacopeial convention, a non-profit scientific organization.

representation of human and animal forms in aztec art is so heavily stylized that they are almost beyond recognition