on the presumptuous heathen, which are celebrated by the prophet in the first five verses of this chapter.

but test it first on a small area of her skin to see if there she has any adverse reactions.

iii and iv of these findings do not furnish adequate directions for use for any of defendants' drugs